Notes on the Tax

The aim of this tax was to finance the war against France, the Act, '6 & 7 William and Mary, Chapter 6', stating that it was "For granting to his Majesty certain rates and duties upon Marriages, Births and Burials and upon Batchelors and Widowers for the terme of five years for carrying on the Warr against France with vigour." It was renewed for a further period of six years, by the Act 8 & 9 William III C20, so that it eventually ran from 1695 to 1706.

The tax on burials was 4/-, which in the case of paupers was chargeable to the parish. Any member of the nobility or anyone aspiring to gentility had to pay a surcharge over and above this amount, ranging from £50 for the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, to 20/- for the widow of a Gentleman.

The Act also required a surcharge of 20/- for the burial of any person "haveing Real Estate of value of £50 per annum or upwards or a personal estate of value of £600".

The charge for "every birth except the Child or Children of such as Receive Alms" was 2/-, with surcharges at the same rates as those for a burial.

The standard tax for a marriage was 2/6 to which a similar surcharge had to be added.

There was also a tax on "batchelors over the age of 21 (except such as receive Almes), and widdowers having no child or children, other than paupers". It was the only part of the tax which was payable every year and the standard rate was set at 1/-. For these last two taxes, the surcharges were much lower than those charged for burials and births, though of course the dukes and archbishops again paid the highest charge, in this case £12-10-0. For the man with an estate of £50 per annum or a Personal Estate of £600 the surcharge was 2/6, making a total of 3/6.

There were to be three or more Commissioners for each "County or City, Borough or Town" whose signatures are found at the end of each assessment certificate.

Assessors were appointed for each parish. Their task was to present in writing their Certificates of the names of all persons living in their district, with the sums they would have to pay in the event of a birth, burial or marriage etc.

After the Assessors had completed this, the lists were given to the Collectors: it was their job to see that all taxes were paid within ten days of a taxable event. It is made quite plain that the lists were to include the births or burials of people outside the Church of England.

Even allowing for the much shorter expectation of life in those days, it is strange to find that these long documents are mere assessments of what people might possibly have to pay in the event of their death etc. within the five year period.

The Returns for the Rothwell Hundred.

A return has survived for each of the parishes in the Rothwell Hundred. Some lists of the Hundred mention Thorpe Lubenham and Thorpe Underwood, but at this date the former was an extra-parochial district and the latter a hamlet of about seven houses, divided between the parishes of Rothwell and Harrington. It is therefore assumed that the inhabitants of these two places are included in other parish lists.

All but one of the assessments were signed by R.Mauncell. This is presumably the Robert Mauncell who, with his wife Judith, heads the list of names at Thorpe Malsor - and the man who must have preserved these documents.

The index to this transcript includes 4841 names but when the entries relating to the signatures or names of the Commissioners, Collectors and the Assessors are subtracted, the total number of people listed as living in the Hundred in 1697 is 4732.

There are many small anomalies in the actual amounts of tax that people had to pay - mainly between districts, though to some extent within an individual assessment certificate.

In a number of cases it could be thought that some of the children have two given names, but as in many cases they read William Mary, or Elizabeth Thomas on one line, I feel almost certain that this is just a short cut on the part of the writer. The return for the Vialls family on page 80 lists the mother and father, followed by John William, Joseph Benjamin and Sarah. I am quite sure that this represents five children as they are all mentioned separately in their father's will.

Notes on the transcript.

All Christian names have been extended, so that Wm. is transcribed as William. The only exceptions to this are where there is a possibility of mistake with such abbreviations as Fra. or Ed. These have been left as found in the original. Apart from this, all spellings have been accurately reproduced as for instance the name SouthHall on page 65.

Any name which appears twice on a page appears twice in the index. * in the index indicates that no name appears in the original assessment certificate. All surnames in which the first letter is missing in the original will be found at the end of the index. The same applies to illegible Given Names which appear after all other instances of the surname.

In a few cases the original assessment certificates were written on very large sheets with the result that there are more names on one sheet than are possible in the transcript. In these cases - which include pages 68/9 and all but the last two pages of the Rothwell return, the excess names are printed on the next page. Otherwise, the pagination is in accordance with the originals.

NOTES

1) Page 13. It is not clear whether the three letters after the name Arthur Deacon are Cor or Car. As in a number of cases the occupations have been included in the lists for Little Bowden, it seems possible that this is an abbreviation for cordwainer.

2) Page 13. The name Anthony Deacon was first written here but was crossed out and replaced by the name Arthur.

3) Page 13. The name Mary was first written here but was crossed out and the name Elizabeth substituted.

4) Page 13. The name Elizabeth Powers was included in the list but then crossed out. No other name was substituted.

5) Page 53. The names of Mary and William, son and daughter of Thomas Lellech, junior, were included in the list but then crossed out. No other names were substituted.

6) Page 71. The name Grace was first written but was then crossed out and the name Rachell substituted.

7) Page 72. The name William Smith was first written and then crossed out and the name John substituted. Both names appear in the transcript.

8) Page 73. The names Sarah and Jonathan Collins were crossed out in the original.

9) Page 86. This name could either be Joan or Jane but is too badly smudged to read with certainty.
